

SCIENCE COLOURING BOOK

When I grow up I want to be...

SCIENCE COLOURING BOOK

When I grow up I want to be...

Inspire your future scientists with this colouring book packed full of exciting jobs!

Produced by

Scottish Universities Life Sciences Alliance (SULSA)

Designed by

Jill Inkster

Illustrated by

Gary Erskine | Sonia Leong | Nicola Williams

Printed 2022

Cho is a Neuroscientist studying the brain and nervous system - she is working towards treating dementia

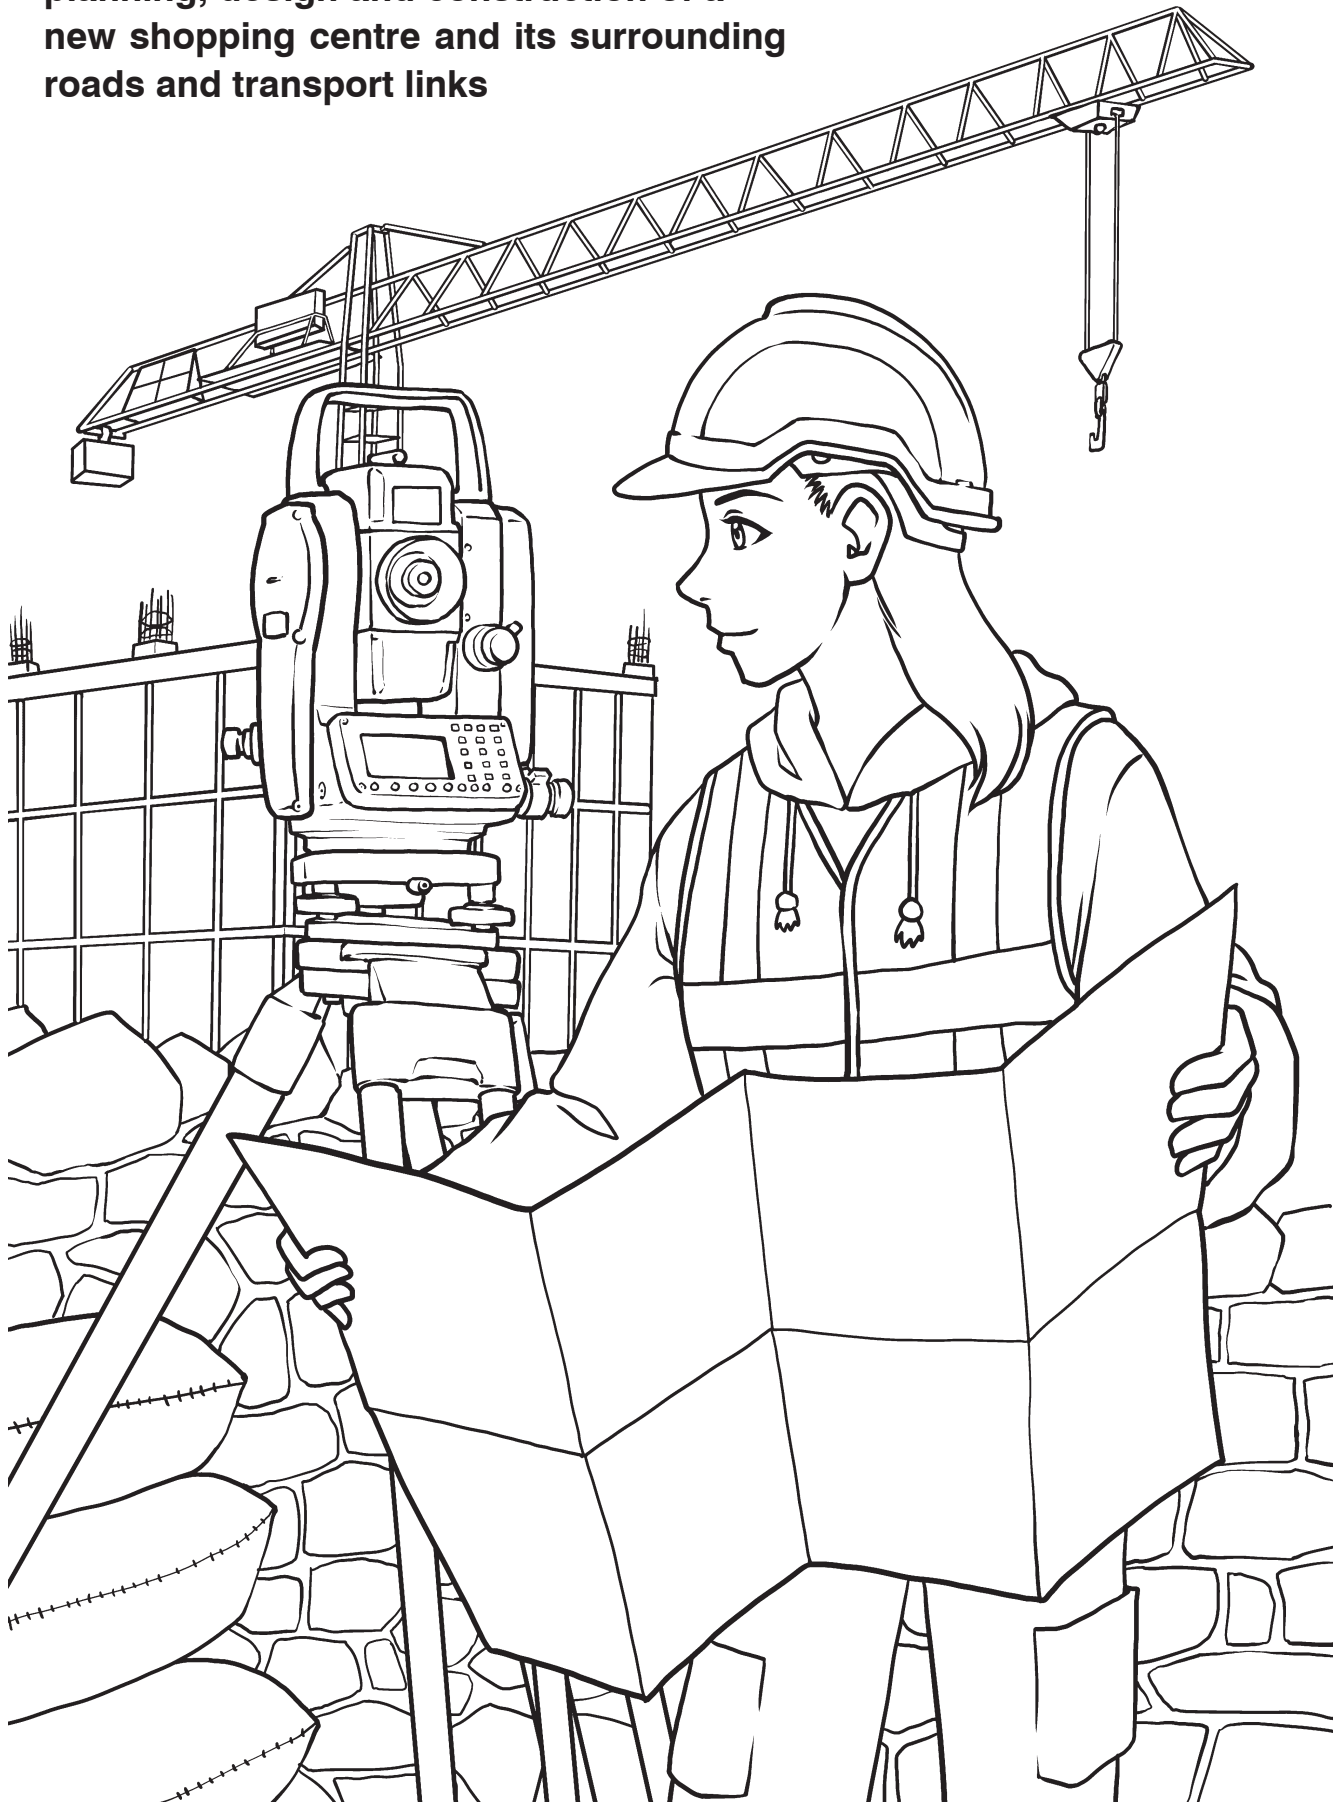

André is a Chemical Engineer who creates and manufactures products such as plastics, paper, dyes, medicines, fertilizers and food

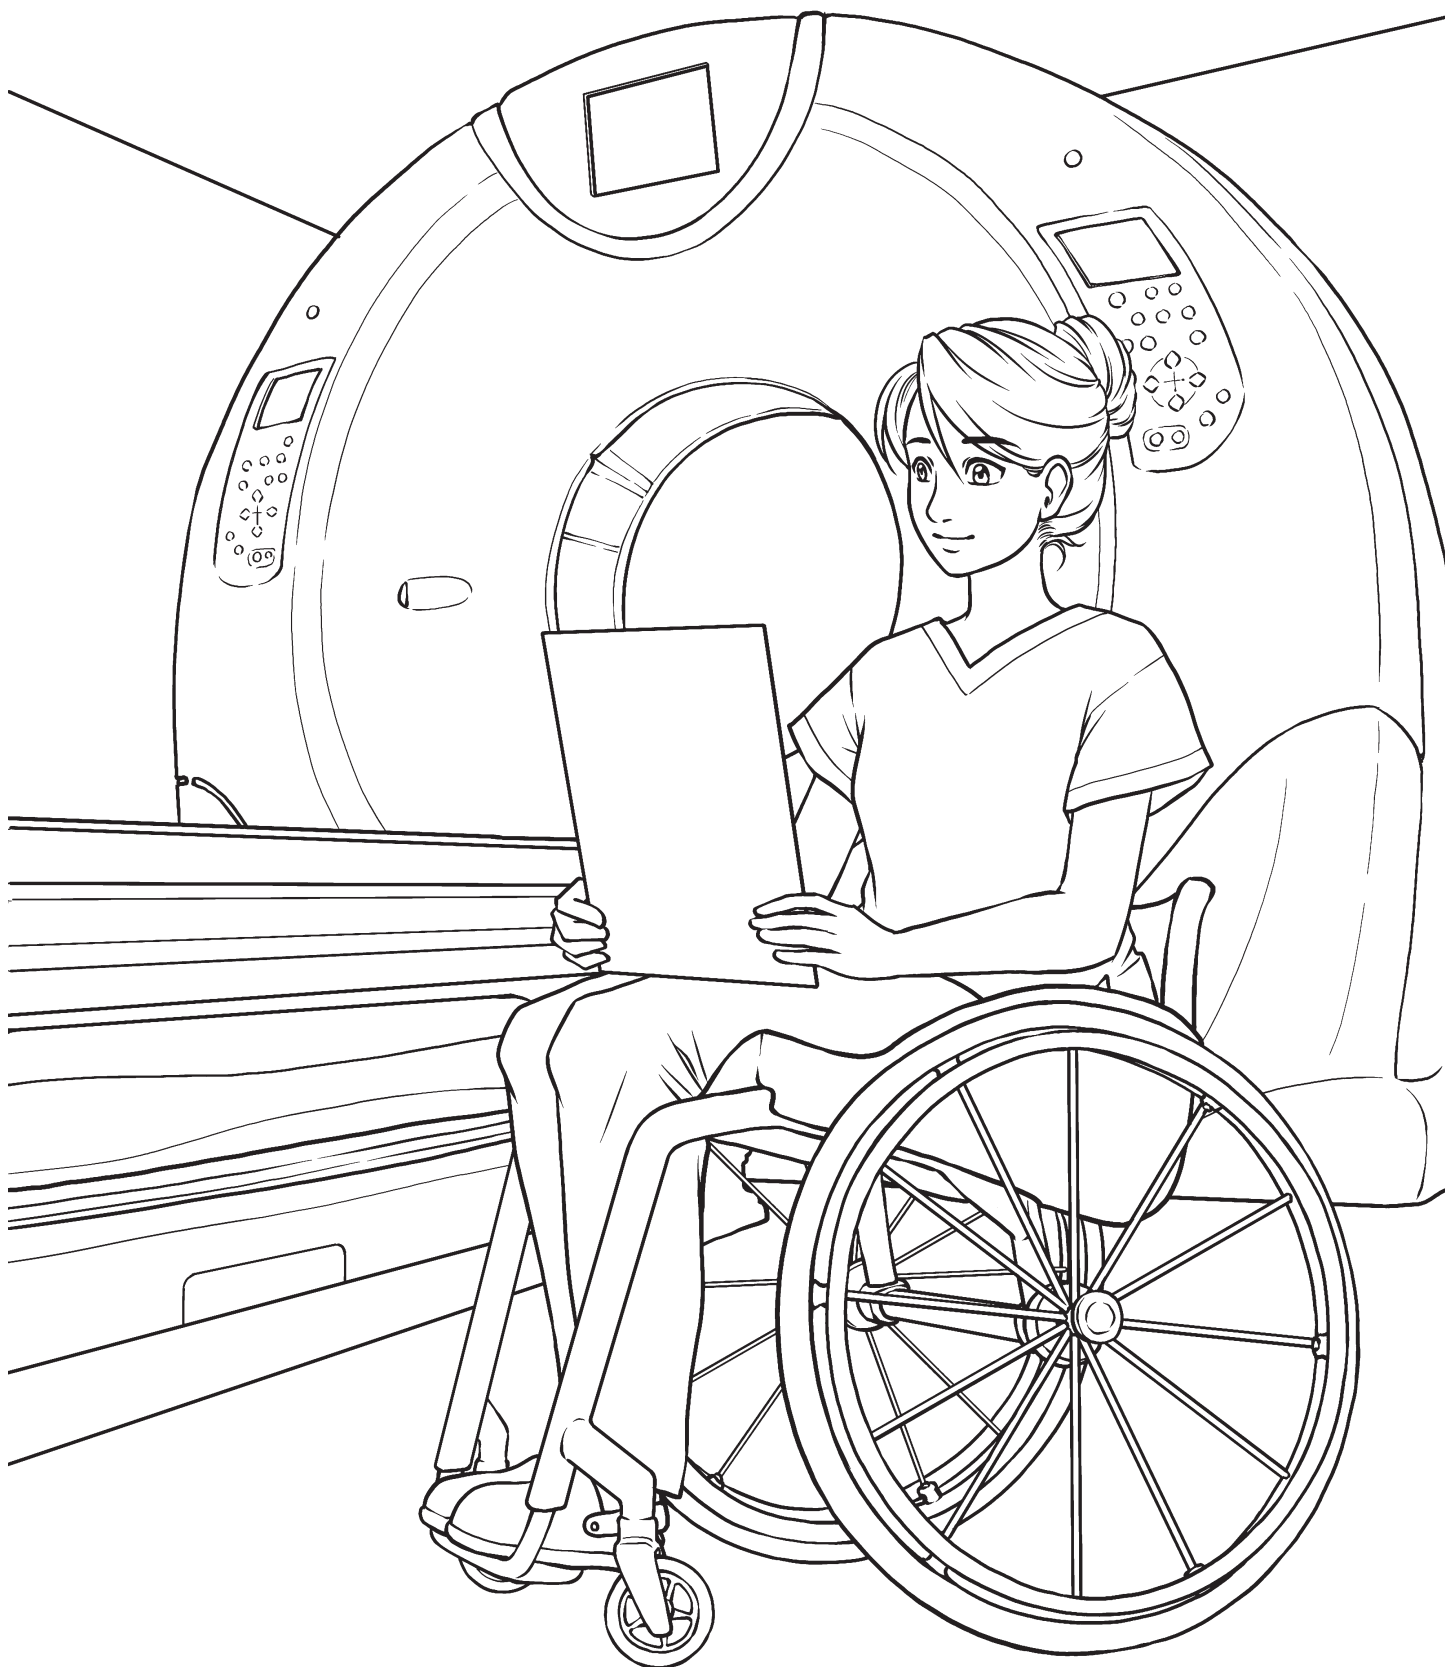

Finn is a Marine Biologist exploring the underwater ecosystems to better understand our oceans

Katie is a Civil Engineer overseeing the planning, design and construction of a new shopping centre and its surrounding roads and transport links

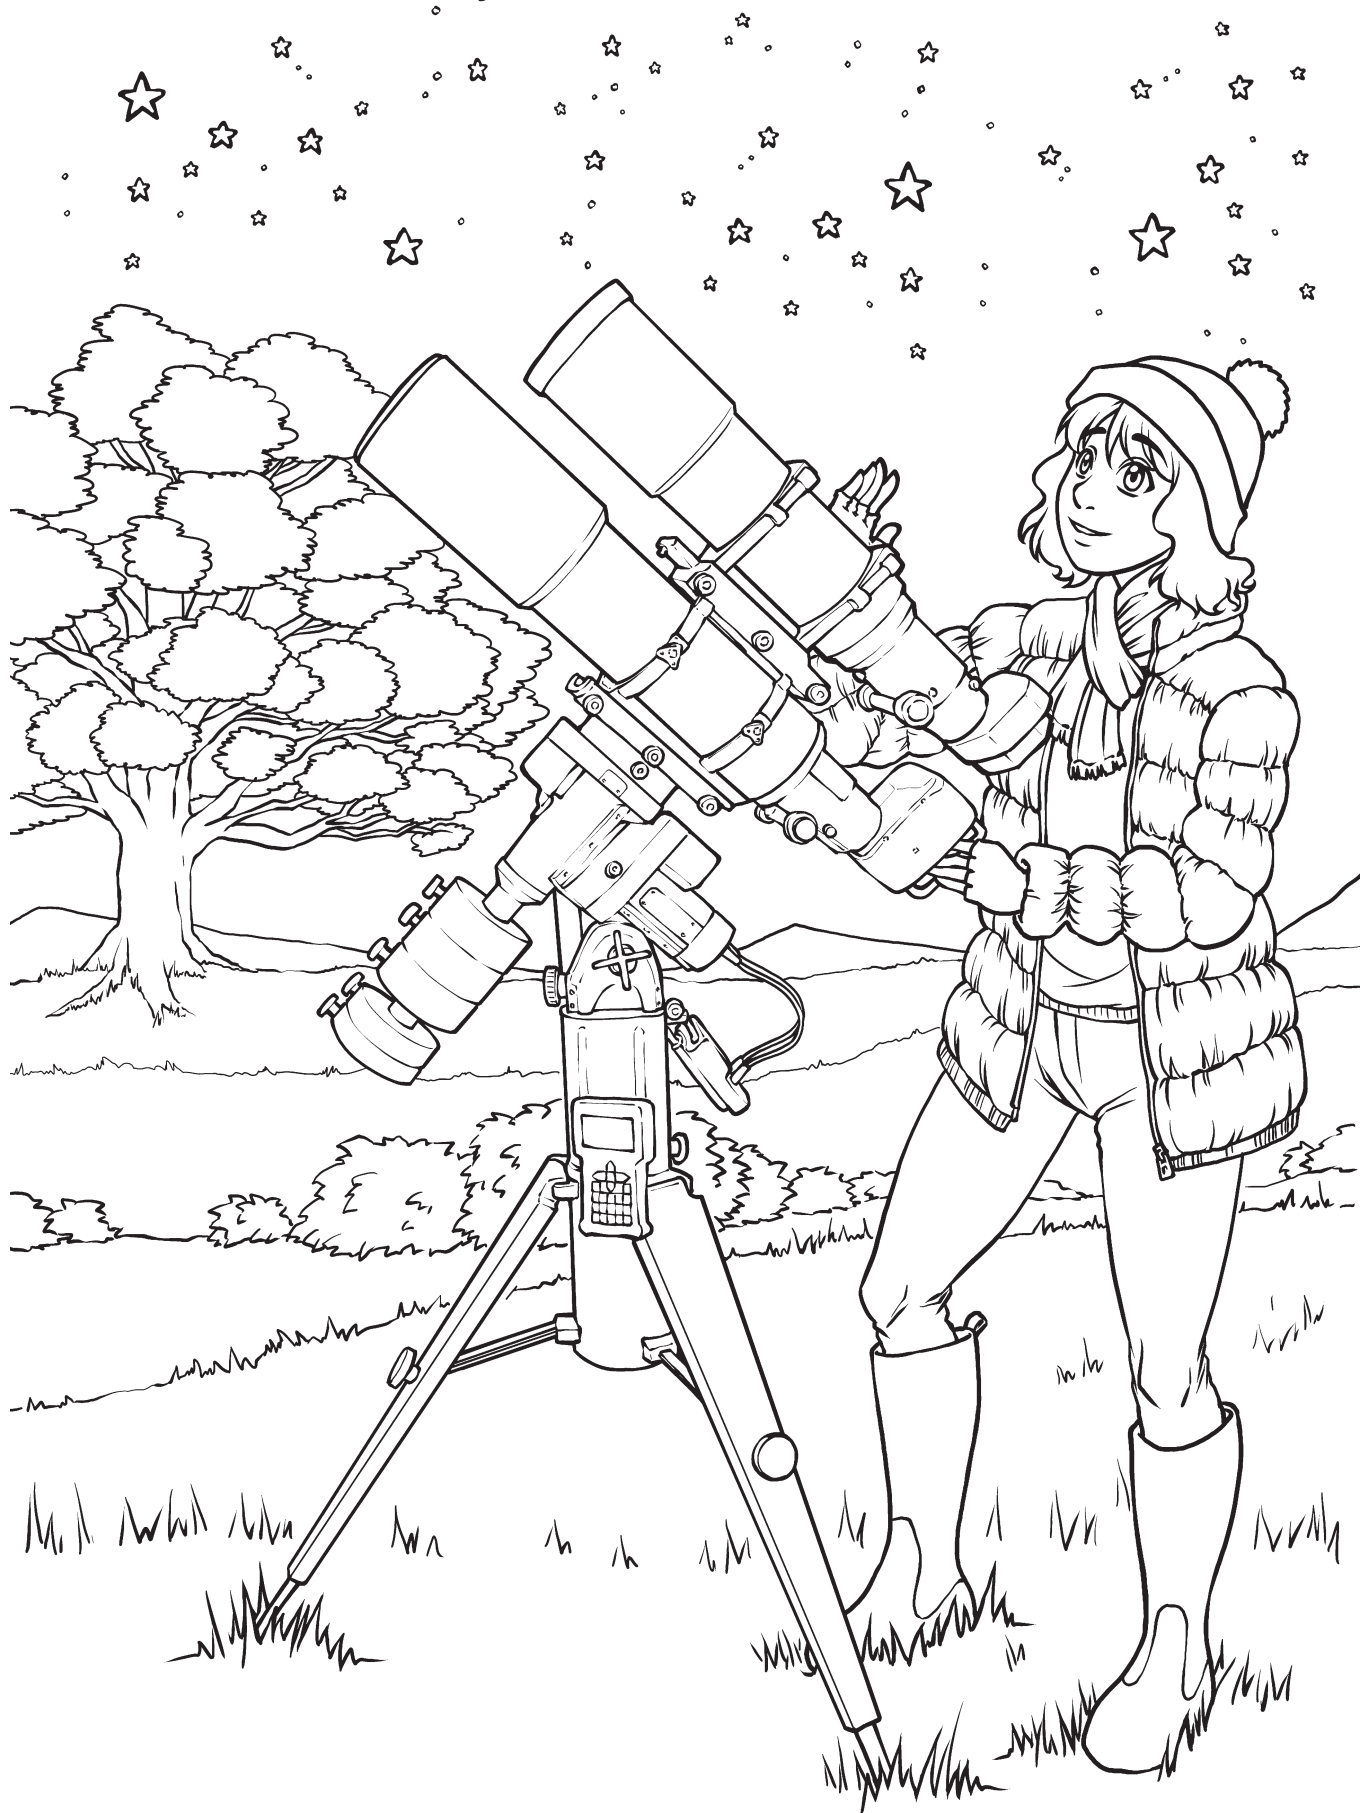

Sofia is a Radiologist who treats injury and disease using high-tech medical machinery such as a x-rays, CT scanners and ultrasounds

Solange is an Economist analysing data to predict the future cost of living for the Scottish Government

Anya is an Astrophysicist exploring the stars in the nights sky to help better understand the universe and our solar system

Jack is a Psychiatrist helping people who are struggling with mental health issues such as anxiety and depression. Jack is partially blind so his guide dog Sam works alongside him

Sabina is an Aeronautical Engineer designing, developing and maintaining aeroplanes for the Royal Air Force

Brodie is a Conservationist working to protect wildlife and preserve the environment in South Africa

Lewis is a Biologist who studies living things including people, animals and plants

Fatima is an Ambulance Paramedic and responds to emergency calls giving lifesaving medical help

Kingston is a Nurse providing care to children that are sick or injured – working as part of a team in the NHS

Aila is an Astronaut fixing a satellite in space which is needed to send TV signals and videos around the world

Matías is a Geologist studying volcanoes and when they might erupt - this job is also known as a Volcanologist

Sofia is a Video Game Designer creating new plots and characters for the new Marvel video game

Cameron is a Physiotherapist helping patients recover after an accident or injury through exercise and massage

Deja is a Microbiologist studying bacteria from patient swabs, she hopes to find treatments for illnesses such as tonsillitis

Louis is a Biomedical Engineer creating new devices and equipment for the NHS to help improve human health

Emily is a Chemist working for Cadbury to improve the taste and appearance of chocolate bars by exploring how they are made and packaged

Preparing HPLC standards
1. Prepare exactly 21 tubes
2. Put tubes in rack
3. Add 200µl stock to 1st tube
PTD →

Preparing HPLC standards
Date 4/13/22
Monday
Cloudy
8:45am - arrived at lab
9:03am - added 500µL 1M NaOH to 500µL H₂O - solution ①
9:05am - added 500µL of solution ① into tube 2.
9:10am - added 500µL to tube ② you've got this!

Milo is a Physicist using lasers to test the strength of new materials to replace plastics

Annie is a Mechanical Engineer working to design and install wind turbines in the Scottish Highlands - wind turbines are used to generate electricity

Submit your artwork...

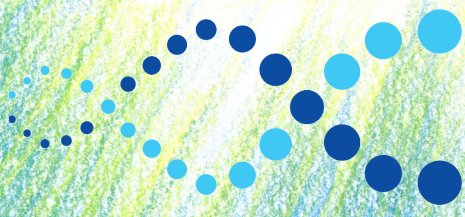

We'd love to see your completed artwork!

Visit our website for details on how to submit or share with us via Twitter @SULSAtweets www.sulsa.ac.uk/colouring-book

@SULSAtweets

SULSA

Scottish Universities Life Sciences Alliance

Inspire your future scientists with this colouring book packed full of exciting jobs!